Natick Is United invites you to a Racial Justice Panel Discussion with Melissa Patrick, Kristen Pope, Bob Awkward, Salimata Bangoura and Zadi Zokou.

NIU continues to convey our message that "We are a community where we value differences and everyone belongs." It is from this spirit that we invite you to hear from your neighbors! Come listen to these Natick residents as they share their diverse experiences of being Black in Natick. The hope is this will be the first of other panels that amplify the voices of our rich, diverse community. This panel represents town residents who will share their own unique stories, experiences, and visions for a more united Natick.

This discussion will be recorded and available on our website for those who are unable to attend the live event. There will be an opportunity for Q&A in the chat. Join us as we move our collective conversation towards equity and justice!
